Easter Invitation to Our Community

As a result of discussions at Parish Council, Executive, and Stewardship, we are going to do a 'walk-and-drop' on Saturday March 27 in the neighbourhoods closest to the church. Our plan is to walk in pairs and leave a single sheet at nearby homes with an invitation to attend one of our Sunday Easter Services. In the process, we will be making ourselves a bit more visible to our immediate community. We did something similar before the Pancake supper, and were successful in prompting some new people to visit our church. We are hoping our Easter flyer-invitations will also prompt a few individuals or families to celebrate with us on April 4th.

'The plan' for March 27th

10:30 – 11:00 meet and organize at the church

11:00 – noon walk and drop off flyers

Noon – 12:30 pizza and drinks back at the church

Chocolate Eggs for Tanzania

We had a great time this week at St. James Westminster making almost 2000 eggs from scratch. We had almost 50 volunteers from age 5 to 85 helping out. A special thank you to Fr. Don, and Nelson and Valerie Cuthbert for joining the work crew on Monday evening.

Your order can be picked up from Laura after both services today. If you choose to pay by cheque, please make it out to the "Bishop Hallam Theological Society".

The final results of our sales will be known in a week or two, and I will let you know how we did.

We will continue to receive donations toward the cost of the supplies in order to increase our profits and therefore the contribution to the seminary in Tanzania.

Thank you for your support.
